

What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We have Bounce Protection that comes with your account.
2. We offer a Sweep Plan, such as a link to a savings account.
To learn more, ask us about these plans.

This notice explains our standard overdraft (Bounce Protection) practices.

➔ What are the standard overdraft practices (Bounce Protection) that come with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic bill payments

We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions unless you ask us to (see below):

- ATM transactions
- Everyday debit card transaction (non-recurring)

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

➔ What fees will I be charged if Bank of Advance pays my overdraft?

Under our standard overdraft (Bounce Protection) practices:

- We will charge you a fee of $20 each time we pay an overdraft.
- There is a daily limit of 6 overdraft fees you may incur within your Bounce Protection.
- There is no daily limit on the number of overdraft fees you may incur beyond your Bounce Protection.
